New Era Creative Space Inc. (NECS) is a community-based educational organization with the mission to develop creative educational programs that are inclusive and accessible to all, promote excellence, and empower youth and their families to work toward their highest potential. We offer classes that stimulate curiosity and foster joy, love of learning, and creative exploration in order to empower the next generation of visionary thinkers.

Form 990 - Additional Information

In 2022, NECS' Partner program provided the opportunity to work with one worldwide and two local organizations sharing similar missions. We partnered with A Call To Men, participating in a virtual training on healthy masculinity entitled Breaking Out of The Man Box. NECS invited community members and educators committed to helping dismantle sexism and racism in daily life, family, community, and organizations. 21 people, including 10 NECS teaching artists, took part. A Call to Men's training provides in-depth education to help create a meaningful impact.

To reach children of many ages, NECS collaborated with Just the Place dance studio to offer a dance and literacy program for children in grades K-2 and joined forces with a Peekskill High School teacher to assist her students in staging a performance of "Diasporic Dreams" for their families and schoolmates.

NECS' Partner program positively influenced more than 100 participants.

In 2022, NECS' Community Program impacted the lives of 614 children and youth, as well as hundreds of community members who attended in-person or virtual culminating performances. NECS provided 45 Community programs focused on empowering participants, either to process and tell their stories through art or by enhancing relationships with themselves, others, and the world around them.

The Art of Speaking and Echoes of the Future brought our Children's Theater Collaborative and Youth Theater Ensemble participants on a creative journey of self-discovery. Engaging with moral situations through the dramatic arts challenged our students to think critically and creatively. In the Spring of 2022, the NECS Youth Theatre Ensemble presented the final performance of Echoes of the Future on Juneteenth at the Hudson Valley Museum of Contemporary Art.

In the summer of 2022, NECS ran its signature Nature Connection program for the fourth year. Nature Connection helps children develop empathy for the environment and cultivate innate positive qualities within themselves. The middle schoolers spent time at a Longhaul Farm in Garrison, learning about sustainable living practices, food security, animal care, planting, and harvesting from a dedicated and loving group of farmers. They hiked, swam, learned to kayak and paddleboard, and created art using natural supplies.

In July, the NECS EmpowerEd Girls group embarked on a service learning immersion trip to The Gambia, West Africa. In partnership with Starfish International, eight of our girls learned from, listened to, and supported their Gambian peers. They learned about Gambian culture, facilitated mental health workshops, and built lifelong connections.

NECS' Community Program provided meaningful paid work for 25 teaching artists/instructors and 3 local businesses, as well as $38,415 in tuition subsidies, discounts, and scholarships for participants. NECS trained 12 teachers and administrative staff in Positive Discipline, Restorative Justice, and Culturally Responsive Teaching principles. These frameworks keep the dignity of each child at the forefront of NECS programs and provide tools for building a culture of kindness, equality, and respect. This training is vital for our team as it recognizes and values the importance of racial and cultural diversity in learning.

community room at Dunbar Heights to provide after-school programs. We contacted Second Chance Foods, a local organization whose mission is to "elevate the health of people and the planet by recovering nutritious food before it goes to waste and delivering it to the tables of hungry families," to collaborate. NECS now provides free after-school programs three days a week, including a hot, nutritious meal alongside academic enrichment, arts programming, and character education in the neighborhood community room.

NECS again was honored to be selected as a provider for The Children's Village whose mission is to help society's most vulnerable children so that they become educationally proficient, economically productive, and socially responsible members of their communities. The Children's Village believes that one strong adult relationship is a game changer for a child, particularly one in foster care. We appreciate the opportunity to impact a child's life for the better.

We were honored to partner internationally with the organization 100cameras to offer a photography workshop for young women at Starfish International in The Gambia, West Africa.
